Examples

Xavier plays for Gow-Gates FC and satisfies that above eligibility criteria for the $250 p/w Loss of Income Top-Up Coverage. Xavier unfortunately injures himself at a sanctioned training session and is unable to work for seven (7) weeks directly following his date of injury as he undertakes surgery and subsequent rehabilitation. His Loss of Income claim is as follows:

- 21 day excess period = NIL
- Four (4) weeks incapacitated @ Standard Policy Benefit Limit (4 x $250) = $1,000
- Four (4) weeks incapacitated @ Top-Up Cover Benefit Limit (4 x $250) = $1,000

Total Loss of Income Benefit Payable = $2,000

Owen plays for Gow-Gates FC and applied for the $500 p/w Loss of Income Top-Up Coverage. Owen works as a financial planner and broke his ankle two years ago. He has fully rehabilitated from his earlier injury. After his application was referred to his insurer, it was deemed Owen satisfied the eligibility criteria and the Policy was incepted. Owen unfortunately injures himself at a sanctioned training session and is unable to work for six (6) weeks directly following his date of injury as he undertakes surgery and subsequent rehabilitation. His Loss of Income claim is as follows:

- 21-day excess period = NIL
- Three (3) weeks incapacitated @ Standard Policy Benefit Limit (3 x $250) = $750
- Three (3) weeks incapacitated @ Top-Up Cover Benefit Limit (3 x $500) = $1,500

Total Loss of Income Benefit Payable = $2,250

Ed plays for Gow-Gates FC and applies for the $500 p/w Loss of Income Top-Up Coverage. Ed works as a roof tiler and satisfies all eligibility criteria. Ed unfortunately injures himself at a golf course on the weekend. He is unable to work for three (3) weeks directly following his date of injury as he undertakes surgery and subsequent rehabilitation. His Loss of Income claim has been declined as Ed did not sustain the injury at a sanctioned event.
